Steve LaBudd of Tacoma Park Laid to Rest Wed.

Funeral services for Steve LaBudd, 69, who passed away at his home at Tacoma Park, Monday, were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Huebl Funeral Chapel at Aberdeen, with the Rev. A. Elmer Moe officiating. Burial was in Riverside cemetery.

Mr. LaBudd was born October 17, 1879, at Wild Rose, Wis., where he grew to manhood. About forty years ago he came to Aberdeen where he was engaged in carpenter work. On November 17, 1926, he was united in marriage with Mabel Bowan at Groton and their home was established at Tacoma Park, where they operated a store and the post office, until five years ago when they retired.

The deceased leaves to mourn his departure, besides his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Neva Becker and Mrs. Selma Busch, both of Minneapolis; also a number of grandchildren.
